GUEST LECTURERS

Below we introduce those guest lecturers for whom we had information at the date of printing. We hope to provide information on ISAP participants on our website in the near future.

Susanne Eberhard Petersen, Architect

Architect and Jungian Analyst trained in Zürich. Diploma at ISAPZURICH 2006.

I was born in Denmark in 1952. As a young woman I was very engaged in politics. This influenced my career. I worked at the Ministry of Labor and related organizations dealing with labor market issues and legislation. Slowly I turned to an old passion for art and psychology, which led to History of Art studies in London and later to the C.G. Jung Institute in Zürich. I work in private practice near Copenhagen and give seminars and workshops about art and Jungian psychology.

David L. Freeman, Jungian Analyst & Psychotherapist

Rabbi David Freeman is a professional member of AJA, London and has been in private analytical practice for 22 years. He is an ex chair of AJA and is a supervisor and training analyst. He was ordained in 1967 and served congregations for 21 years. Also during that time he was Chaplain to university students and a Hospice Chaplain working with the dying. His special interests are Hebrew mysticism, alchemy and the interface between religion and analytical psychology. He is a past Chair of the Guild of Pastoral Psychology, London, and has taught in the training programs of various Jungian societies.

Patrizia Michan, M.A.

Patrizia Michan is a Jungian analyst in Mexico City in private practice since 1995 and as a clinician since 1981. She is a former faculty member of Anahuac University and University of the Americas as well as founder and directress of the C. G. Jung Center in Mexico City. She has lectured in Mexico, Latin America, United States and Europe. Her articles include: Analysis and Individuation in the Mexican Psyche. She is assistant editor for the Journal of Analytical Psychology.

Lara Newton, M.A.

Senior diplomate Jungian Analyst in private practice in Denver, Colorado. She has been studying Jungian Psychology since 1974 and has masters degrees in English Literature and Psychology. Lara is co-coordinator of training and Vice-President of the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado, a training center of the Inter-regional Society of Jungian Analysts. She has been president of the Jung Society of Colorado for ten years. Brothers and Sisters:

Discovering the Psychology of Companionship is her first book.

Zanet Princevac de Villablanca, M.A.

Zanet Princevac de Villablanca, has been a provisional Individual Member of IAAP since February 2007. She is President of the Belgrade Analytical Circle (IAAP Developing Group, Serbia) and member of both the Serbian Association of Psychotherapists and the European Association of Psychotherapy. She has lectured and given seminars on topics related to Analytical Psychology for professionals and the general public in Serbia and Macedonia. She lives and works in Belgrade.
