

Jungian Odyssey 2023 • General Terms & Conditions

By registering for the Jungian Odyssey, you agree to the terms and conditions as follow:

The variety of packages for the Jungian Odyssey include the programs and services described at www.jungianodyssey.com and in the downloadable brochure.

Further:

- (1) Enrollment is limited and granted on a first-come-first-serve basis. Your place at the Odyssey will be confirmed upon our receipt of your registration form and paid fees.
- (2) Upon our confirmation of your place at the Odyssey and paid fees, you will receive a form requesting your ranking of choices for seminars and workshops. We will do our best to fulfill your top choices. You will be notified about your course placements upon arrival at the Odyssey.
- (3) The rule of confidentiality applies for our Temenos and all seminars and workshops that deal with sensitive material. For the protection of personal boundaries, experiential workshops are excluded for analysts of ISAPZÜRICH and all others (including trainees) who anticipate or encounter their analysands, patients, or supervisees at these events.
- (4) The daily program may be subject to change, within limits.
- (5) ISAPZÜRICH-AGAP (hereafter ISAP) is unable to provide discounts or refunds for your partial use of program events and services that are included in Odyssey packages.
- (6) Force Majeure Insofar as the Covid pandemic and/or other catastrophic events may influence travel conditions, it is your responsibility to monitor and comply with all applicable rules. They may vary from country to country and depend on the country from which you enter Switzerland. As soon as possible in advance of the Odyssey, we will inform you about the situation within Switzerland. See also point (7) below:
- (7) Cancellation & Refunds
With your fully cancelled registration in due time, ISAP will refund your payment minus a fee to cover ISAP's administration, our incurred banking or credit card fees, and eventual hotel cancellation fees. You qualify for refunds according to the cancellation dates as follow:
  - by February 15: refund 95% of your paid fees
  - by March 1: refund 50% of your paid fees
  - after March 1: forfeit of all refunds

Force Majeure ISAP itself reserves the right to cancel the Jungian Odyssey due to under-enrollment or catastrophic events. In such a case we notify you as soon as possible and credit 100% of your paid fees toward a future Odyssey—or refund 98% of your paid fees. (The deducted 2% covers only our incurred banking or credit card fees.)

- (8) Waiver of Liability
It is your responsibility to be adequately covered with insurance for costs incurred by delayed or cancelled flights, trains, etc., and costs incurred by cancellation or withdrawal due to illness or injury contracted prior to or during the Odyssey. For all such cases, ISAP declines all liability.
