

Peter Ammann, Ph.D. After studying musicology, trained at the C.G.Jung-Institute Zürich. Now training analyst and lecturer at ISAP. Practices in Zürich and Geneva. Lectures regularly in CH, South Africa, USA and the UK. He is also a filmmaker. His documentaries include "Hlonipa – Journey into Wilderness", "Sandplay with Dora Kalff", "Spirits of the Rocks" and "Healing in Twp Worlds".

Kathrin Asper, Dr.phil. *1941, LA, SA

Psychotherapeutin und Psychoanalytikerin in eigener Praxis in Meilen und Zürich. Schwerpunkte: Frühstörungen, psychotherapeutische Fragen, körperliche Behinderung, Märchen, Literatur. "Verlassenheit und Selbstentfremdung"

Antoinette Baker-Kempe, med.kand.

Born 1934 in Sweden. Has lived in Switzerland since 1964. Author of four children's books, published in several languages. 1980 Diploma from the C.G. Jung-Institut Zürich, Küsnacht. Since then in private practice in Zürich and Stäfa. 1976-86 clinical work at the Jungian "Klinik am Zürichberg". Served in various roles at the Küsnacht Institute and since 2004 within the administration of ISAP. ISAP training analyst and supervisor. Seminars on Jungian dream interpretation and on practical problems when commencing analytical work. Special interest: Individuation in the third part of life.

Nathalie Baratoff, lic.phil.

Russian area studies at Brown and Zurich Universities. Diploma from C.G. Jung-Institute Zurich (1987). ISAP training and supervising analyst. Private practice in Schönenberg and Zurich. Author of Oblomov: a Jungian Approach. A Literary Image of the Mother Complex.

Irene Berkenbusch, Jgg.1944, Dr. phil., Studium der Germanistik, Theologie und Psychologie. Seit 1976 Gymnasiallehrerin. Diplom 2004 als Analytische Psychologin (C.G.Jung-Institut Zürich), Arbeit in eigener Praxis in Ludwigshafen am Rhein (D). Besondere Schwerpunkte: Traumaforschung, Beziehung zwischen Religion und Psychologie, Seelische Nachwirkungen der NS-Zeit. Seit 2006 Mitglied und Graduierte Analytikerin im ISAP Zürich.

Linda Briendl, lic. phil., received her degree in psychology and psychopathology from the University of Zurich (1990) and her diploma from the C .G. Institute in 1993. Formerly a graphic artist, she has worked in a psychiatric hospital, was employed in a medical psychosomatic practice and has lectured at colleges for social professions. She has a private practice in Baden, is a training analyst at ISAPZurich.

Linda Briendl, lic. phil., studierte Psychologie u. Psychopathologie an der Universität Zürich (Abschluss 1990). Diplom am C. G. Jung-Institut 1993. Arbeit in einer psychiatrischen Klinik und in einer psychosomatischen Gemeinschaftspraxis. Seit 1993 als Psychologin, Psychotherapeutin SPV und Supervisorin in eigener Praxis in Baden tätig. Vorträge und Seminare in versch. Institutionen, Referentin bei den Lindauer Psychotherapiewochen.

Paul Brutsche

Nach der Matura am Neusprachlichen Gymnasium in Basel Ausbildung in Philosophie und Theologie in Freiburg, Paris und Innsbruck. Später Studium der Psychologie an der Universität Zürich und am C.G.Jung Institut (1975). Lehr- und Supervisionsanalytiker. Vortragstätigkeit mit den thematischen Akzenten Kunst, Kreativität, Bilderdeutung.

Was born in 1943 in Basel. After the Matura in Basel he did 8 year training in Philosophy and Theology in Freiburg, Paris and Innsbruck. Later he studied Psychology at the University of Zurich and at the C.G.Jung Institute (1975). Works since then in private praxis. Training and Supervision Analyst. He has given lectures and seminars on art, creativity and picture interpretation.

Katharina Casanova hat Psychologie an der Universität Zürich studiert und im Jahr 2001 das Diplom des C.G.Jung-Instituts erhalten. Seit 1990 arbeitet sie in einer psychiatrisch-psychotherapeut. Gemeinschaftspraxis in Zürich mit Erwachsenen und Paaren. Seit 2004 ist sie Studienleiterin am ISAPZürich. Ihre besonderen Interessen gelten der Psychologie des Traumes, der Deutung von Bildern und der Religionsgeschichte

Diane Cousineau Brutsche was born in Montreal, Canada. She has a PhD degree in French literature from the University of Paris and a diploma in Analytical Psychology from the C.G. Jung Institute of Zürich. She works in private practice in Zürich since 1992. She is a participant and lecturer at ISAP Zürich, author of articles and of a book in French entitled "Le Paradoxe de l'Âme" (The Paradox of the Soul), Georg Editeur, Genève 1973.

Marco Della Chiesa, Prof. lic. phil., is a sociologist and a graduate of the CG Jung Institute Zürich. He is a training analyst with private practice in Zürich, and currently co-president of ISAPZURICH. He also a trainer and supervisor in psychodrama and group psychotherapy. Among his personal contributions to these fields is his technique of "Ancestordrama". He was formerly professor at the Polytechnic Institute Basel where he taught sociology and psychology for architects.

Michael Dömer

Geboren und aufgewachsen in der Nähe von Köln. Studium von Philosophie, Theologie und Religionswissenschaft in Bonn, Tübingen und Frankfurt a.M. Promotion zum Dr. theol. Nach mehrjähriger Seelsorger Tätigkeit Ausbildung am C.G.Jung-Institut in Zürich. 1988 Übersiedlung in die Schweiz nach Grenchen. Seit 1989 in eigener psychotherapeutischer Praxis tätig, daher seit dem Jahr 2000 vollzeitlich. Verheiratet und Vater zweier erwachsener Söhne.

Brigitte Egger, Dr.sc.nat.ETH, is a Jungian training and supervising analyst with private practice in Zürich. As an ecologist she is interested in psychic and symbolic dimensions of collective issues. She introduces this dimension into practical environment protection, especially concerning energy and water, predators, landscape, market globalisation, thus building up the field of psychecology. She is interested in creative ways of communicating depth psychological insights. (www.psychecology.ch)

Susanne Elsensohn, Dr. phil., studierte Musik in Zürich und London, unterrichtete Klavier und konzertierte. Später studierte sie an der Universität Zürich Psychologie, Ethnologie und deutsche Literaturwissenschaft, Promotion über die Rolle von Träumen im Schamanismus. Am C.G. Jung-Institut Zürich machte sie die Ausbildung zur Analytischen Psychologin. Sie arbeitet in privater Praxis.

Gary R. Hayes, lic.phil. – graduate of the University of Zurich and the C.G. Jung Institute Zurich. Training analyst and supervisor ISAPZURICH. Currently member of the ISAP Promotion Committee and SGAP Supervision Project Training Group for analytical psychologists in Switzerland. Special interests and regular presentations in the psychology of the father, on dreams, narcissism and the transformative aspect of the anima. Private practice in Zurich since 1990.

John Hill received his degrees in philosophy at the University of Dublin and the Catholic University of America. He trained at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich, has practiced as a Jungian analyst since 1973 and is a training analyst of ISAPZurich. His publications include the following subjects: The Association Experiment, Celtic Myth, James Joyce, The Significance of Home, Dreams and Christian Mysticism.

Scott Hyder, MA

Born 1956, two siblings, undergraduate studies in Idaho, USA, with a year in Germany and France along the way. English teacher in Peace Corps Morocco two years. Licence in music from Uni. Paris VIII, 1982. CG Jung Institute, 1983-89: thesis on archetypal dynamics of energy exchange in relationships (intrapsychic, interpersonal, transpersonal levels, including collective environmental) in Reflections on the Vampire: Wisdom of the Wound, Wound of Wisdom (2001).

Private practice sequentially in Vancouver, CAN; Sun Valley & Boise, Idaho, US (co-founded non-profit idahofriendsofjung.org), since 2012 in Zürich, CH, with dearest wife, Ms Heike Weis Hyder. Joined ISAP in 2012 & AGAP ExCo in 2013.

Ute Jarmer, Dr. med.

FMH Psychiatrie und Psychotherapie

8125 Zollikerberg Trichtenhauserstr. 29 Tel. 044.391.67.37

Diplom am C.G.Jung-Institut Zürich 1979

Analytische und psychiatrische Tätigkeit in Zürich und Zollikerberg

Rolf Kaufmann, 1940, lebt heute im Ruhestand. Er wuchs in Zürich auf und studierte nach dem Besuch des Kant. Literargymnasiums in Zürich Theologie. Er begann seine Karriere als Pfarrer der Evangelisch-reformierten Landeskirche des Kt. Zürich, absolvierte die Ausbildung mit Diplom am Jung-Institut Zürich und arbeitete nach seinem Kirchenaustritt als Psychotherapeut, Erwachsenenbildner, Schriftsteller und Meditationslehrer (Zen-Meditation). Er hat fünf Bücher verfasst: opus-magnum.de.

Nancy Krieger, PhD. I came to Jungian psychology after a degree in physics and most of a lifetime spent in computer science and telecommunications. I obtained a doctorate with the Centre for Psychoanalytic Studies at the University of Essex in England. My dissertation consisted of a comparison of Jungian theory to recent findings in neuroscience. I have a private practice in Alsace. Currently Head of the Program Committee.

Ursula Kübler, geboren und aufgewachsen in Thusis, GR. Besuch des Lehrerseminars. Später Psychologiestudium an der Uni Zürich mit Psychopathologie und Religionsethnologie. Jungsche psychotherapeutische Grundausbildung. Spezialisiert in Traumatherapie :EMDR, L.Reddemann und M. Huber. Psychotherapeutische Praxis seit 1984, daneben Anstellungen in Heim für psychisch kranke Frauen, in Wiedereingliederungsprojekt für Langarbeitslose und seit 2003 an der Schule Horgen.

Peter Luginbühl, lic. phil. studied clinical psychology at the University of Zurich. He worked for many years in a therapy center for dependent drug users and got his degree in Analytical Psychology at ISAP in 2012. Since 2007 he is a psychotherapist at Sihlmed, a center of integrative medicine in Zurich, and works with adults, adolescents and children. He has further training in Psychodrama, and Psychodynamic Imaginative Trauma Therapy (PITT).

Lucienne Marguerat, lic. phil., was born in 1943 in Lausanne. She graduated in sociology at the University of Geneva. After 10 years as a computer specialist in Zurich she returned to her interest for the human condition and started her training at the C. G. Jung Institute. She has a private practice in Zurich, is a training analyst at ISAP and co-director of the Counseling Service. She has given lectures and workshops on various subjects at the Antenne Romande in Lausanne and the C.G. Institute, now at ISAP. Her areas of interest include fairy tales, dreams, time, the archetypal feminine and outsider art.

Urs H. Mehlin

Nach der Matura am Humanistischen Gymnasium in Basel, Austauschstipendium an der „Brandeis University“, Waltham, Mass. (Theatre Arts, Music, Literature). Dann Studium von Germanistik, Franz. Lit. Und Psychologie. Universität Basel. 1972-1980 Studium am C.G. Jung-Institut Zürich. 1988: Ernennung zum Lehr und Kontrollanalytiker (E./K./J.). Vortrags-und Publikationstätigkeit, vor allem im Bereich von Entwicklung/Erziehung und den Zusammenhängen zwischen Kunst, Literatur, Oper und Tiefenpsychologie.

Isabelle Meier

Psychologin, Dr. phil.

Dipl. Analytische Psychologin nach C.G. Jung

Katathym-imaginative Psychotherapeutin SAGKB

Praxisbewilligung als Psychotherapeutin in Zürich in eigener Praxis

Lehranalytikerin und Dozentin am ISAPZürich

Spezialgebiete: Imaginationen, Komplexe und Archetypen, Psychotherapieforschung

Schweizer Redaktorin der "Zeitschrift für Analytische Psychologie"

Siri Ness is a Jungian analyst in private practice in Oslo, Norway. Prior to her training at the C.G. Jung Institute in Zürich, she worked for twenty years as a freelance translator of fiction, as well as a reader of fiction, for various publishing firms and for the Norwegian radio. Her great love of storytelling, fairy-tales and mythology developed through the years into a keen interest in the various ways that patterns of myths and fairy tales live on in the stories and experiences of modern people.

Dariane Pictet received her degree in Comparative Religion from Columbia University. She also attended Drama School and published two Anthologies of Poetry. She completed the BodySoul Leadership Training from the Marion Woodman Foundation which bring together myth, movement, and painting. She is a Visiting Lecturer at Regent's College SPC, an Executive Officer of AGAP and a former Trustee of the Guild of Analytical Psychology and Spirituality. She is currently researching women's mid-life transitions from a Jungian and has a private practice in London, U.K.

Marianne Peier

Ausbildung am C.G. Jung-Institut mit Abschluss am ISAPZürich. Arbeitet in privater Praxis (E + K) mit kantonaler Praxisbewilligung und delegiert in Zürich und Baden. Lizentiat in Psychologie, Psychopathologie und englischer Literatur, Erstberuf Primarlehrerin. Spezielle Interessen: imaginative und gestalterische Methoden (Sandspiel, Bilder, Musik), Traum, Märchen, Migrationsschicksale, Trauma, Entwicklungspsychologie und Psychiatrie.

Katy Remark, PhD

Undergrad and graduate work in Psychology; graduate of CG Jung Institute in 2003. Studied and trained in ISTDP, a body-centered psychotherapy; Certified EMDR Therapist; Certified Imago Relationship Therapist. Areas of interest: Body-centered visualization; Assertiveness, Anger and Aggression. Private Practice in Zurich.

Bruno Rhyner, Dr. phil.

Dr. Rhyner is a psychotherapist in private practice in Bad Ragaz and Zurich. Besides psychology he studied Japanese and Chinese and wrote his dissertation on "Zen Buddhism and Morita Psychotherapy".

Christa Robinson

A degree in Fine Arts, 3 years at the Pediatric University Clinic in Geneva, followed by a MA in Applied Psychology brought me to the Jung Institute in Zurich in 1971. I gratefully remember the „master-disciple“ tradition with the first generation of Jungians. In 1972 I started my own practice. Other activities included: 15 years clinical work at the Jungian „Klinik am Zürichberg“, training supervisor in more than 700 social projects, schools and universities, 7 years in a male prison and teaching at the Jung-Institut at Küsnacht. Long-term working relationship with the Eranos Foundation. TA and Director of Studies at ISAP. Keen to learn more.

Ingela Romare is a Jungian analyst with diploma from the C G Jung Institute in Zürich in 1997. She works as an analyst with a private praxis in Malmö, Sweden. She is also a Film Director, educated at the Swedish Film Institute's Filmschool 1965-68. She has made about 50 documentary films on political, social and existential questions. One of her films "On the Dignity of the Human Soul" is about how inner imagination can help a person to survive torture and being imprisoned under inhuman conditions. Her latest film is a trilogy about "Faith, Hope and Love" produced for Swedish Television.

Yuriko Sato is a qualified doctor, psychiatrist and Jungian analyst. She has over 10 years of psychiatric experience in Japan, and is a graduate of the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich. She is an ISAP participating analyst living in Zürich.

Kristina Schellinski, born in Freiburg, Germany, in 1956. She received her MA in Political Science and Literature and worked as a journalist for radio and print media. From 1983-98 she worked for the UNICEF, assisting children in especially difficult circumstances. She also developed the European Strategy for Children's Rights. Graduate of C.G. Jung Institute in Zürich (2002). Ms. Schellinski works in private practice in Geneva and is the mother of two sons. She is a member of IAAP, AGAP and ASP, as well as a founding member of the Rencontres Jungiennes at Lavigny, Switzerland.

Murray Stein is a training analyst at ISAPZURICH. He is the author of Jung's Treatment of Christianity, In MidLife, Jung's Map of the Soul, The Principle of Individuation. He edited Jungian Analysis. His special interests are analysis and spirituality, methods of Jungian psychoanalytic treatment, and the individuation process.

Margaret Stienstra, MA is an ISAP ZH graduate (2014) and has sought to facilitate working with symbols and ambiguity, also through literature, in international high schools and interactive public workshops.

Erhard Trittbach arbeitet seit seinem Diplom (2002) am C. G. Jung Institut Zürich als K/E Therapeut in eigener Praxis in Zürich und Zug. Er war während sechs Jahren als Leiter der Beratungsstelle der HAZ, Zürich tätig. Daneben hat er sich einige Jahre im Vorstand der SGAP engagiert.

Ursula Ulmer, M.A.

Born 1936, American, moved to Zurich in 1964, completed the CGJI in 1970. Besides private practice, I served on several committees at the CGJI, became a TA/SA and seminar leader. In 2000 I moved to Cape Town, South Africa, where I trained and supervised HIV counselors in the city and townships. I am a member of SAAJA (South African Jungians), and was active in their training program. I returned to Zürich in March 2008 and am co-president with Murray Stein of ISAP.

Ilsbe von Uslar Ryffel

Ich habe an der Uni Zürich Psychologie studiert mit Germanistik im Nebenfach (1995). Thesis über die Zeit. Ich bin Ausbildungsanalytikerin. Seit über 20 Jahren in der psychotherapeutischen Praxis, vorwiegend mit Erwachsenen, aber auch mit Kindern und Jugendlichen. Ich habe 13 Jahre als Schulpsychologin gearbeitet. In der Praxis wende ich neben den "klassischen" Methoden wie Traumdeutung etc. auch häufig Imaginations- und Entspannungstechniken, Sandspiel und andere Formen der Gestaltung an. Ich bin verheiratet und habe vier Kinder.

Yungblut, Penelope trained at the C. G. Jung Institute, Zurich and is a member of AGAP, IAAP, IRSJA, and ISAP. She has a private practice in Round Hill, VA and in Washington, DC. In addition to offering analysis and spiritual guidance to individuals, Penelope offers a variety of lectures, seminars, workshops and retreats to Jungian groups and others, both in the USA and abroad. She is particularly interested in myth and archetypal stories which

Speak to women's experience across cultures and in updating traditional spiritual practice with the processes and insights offered by active imagination and depth psychology.