Cast:

Paul Brutsche (as C.G. Jung)

John Hill (as Rabbi Braeck)

Dariane Pictet (as Woman)

"We cannot live in a world that is not our own, in a world that is interpreted for us by others. An interpreted world is not a home. Part of the terror is to take back our own listening, to use our own voice, to see our own light." • Hildegard of Bingen

"Unlived life is a destructive, irresistible force that works softly but inexorably." • C.G. Jung

The Labyrinth of Identity Unveiling Our Unlived Lives

The Jungian Odyssey welcomes public participation in ISAPZURICH's annual off-campus retreat with studies in C.G. Jung's Analytical Psychology. The week is open to all who seek spiritual enrichment, personal or professional development, and intimate cross-cultural exchange.

Details The program brochure, downloadable on our website, contains the weekend's course titles and descriptions, presenters' biographies, details about "The Analyst and the Rabbi," and more.

Confidentiality is to be strictly observed as stated in the adjoining registration form.

Our Special Offer To preserve the retreat setting, the Jungian Odyssey is ordinarily reserved for participants who attend full-time, residing at the hotel during the whole week. We are pleased to offer the residents of Saanen and near-by areas these exceptional packages that allow partial attendance of the program, at excellent prices. Kindly note that, within limits, the program may be subject to change.

Advance Registration Required Kindly use the adjoining registration form. We must be in receipt of your form and payment by May 1 at latest. When we receive your registration and payment, we will confirm and send you a seminar/ workshop sign-up form.

Taster Registration • Jungian Odyssey 2018 • May 26–27 and/or May 29
