Chartered Bus Zürich/Saanen/Zürich

The bus departs from Zürich on May 26 promptly at 9:00 am. We will return from Saanen on June 2; arrival at the Zürich airport ca. 11:30; arrival in Zürich ca. 12 noon. For overnights in Zürich, see our recommended hotels.

Accommodations: Huus Hotel Gstaad, Saanen (4-Star)

Our retreat in the Bernese Alps includes 7 overnights with full board* at the magnificent Huus Hotel Gstaad. A recently renovated grand chalet, the hotel is widely acclaimed for its spacious, playful interiors, creative cuisine, and its embodiment of the very soul of hospitality. Free WiFi is available throughout the hotel. All bedrooms are double-sized, have balconies with panoramic views, and are equipped with a Grand Lit bed, shower, telephone, television, balcony—and even a pad tablet with free access to online newspapers. Special amenities (use at no cost): indoor swimming pool, sauna, Turkish bath, whirlpool, fitness room, backpacks, binoculars, hiking boots, walking sticks, mountain bikes, and much more! (*Excludes dinner on the two excursion days and beverages at all meals.)

7-Day Academic Program

Our academic program [link to PDF; forthcoming] presented by highly qualified Jungian analysts and scholars encompasses lectures, seminars, workshops, and temenos discussions. Also included: early morning stretch classes with a seasoned instructor (for all levels) and mid-morning coffee breaks. (Subject to regional rules, program attendance may be recognized for continuing education purposes and/or for future training at ISAPZURICH.)

Excursions for Opt-in at Extra Cost

Consider joining our excursions • Picnic at the romantic Lake of Lauenen • Guided walking tour of historical Saanen with a visit to the Menuhin Center and an organ recital at the 13th Century Church of St. Mauritius • “The Analyst and the Rabbi” — an original play at Hotel Landhaus in Saanen followed by discussion and wine

New Non-Attending Partner Package (#3)

For the first time, the Odyssey offers attendees the chance to bring along one non-attending partner. Partners enjoy the benefits of the chartered bus, and room, board, and full amenities at Huus Hotel. While the academic program is mostly excluded, partners may attend Saturday’s Welcome & Introduction, Keynote Address, and evening of music. Partners are also welcome to join the stretch classes and coffee breaks, and to opt in to all Odyssey excursions. This is all not to mention the opportunity for their immersion in the elemental alpine beauty of the Saanen-Gstaad region!

Special Odyssey Taster Package (#4)

In a new iteration of our experiment in 2017, we offer a taste of the Odyssey exclusively for residents of Saanen, Gstaad, and near-by areas. Chartered bus and hotel overnights and amenities are not included. The package includes selected events on two program days: Sat., May 26: Welcome & Introduction, Keynote Address, dinner, and evening of piano and song; and Sun., May 27: 2 lectures, 1 seminar or workshop, temenos, coffee break, and lunch. At additional cost, tasters may join us on Tues., May 29 for the original play, “The Analyst and the Rabbi,” followed by discussion and wine.
