

The Analyst and the Rabbi

Mon., Oct. 29, 2018 • 19:30
St. Anton's Church Foyer
Klosbachstrasse 36A
8032 Zürich

Entry • Cash at the Door
• General CHF 25.00
• Reduced CHF 18.00
• No Reservations

An Original Play (2017)
By Henry Abramovitch
and Murray Stein

C.G. Jung: Paul Brutsche
Rabbi Leo Baeck: John Hill
The Woman: Dariane Pictet
Cello: Barbara Miller
Director: Murray Stein

Presented by ISAP's veteran theater troupe, this play dramatizes a historic meeting between Prof. C.G. Jung and Rabbi Leo Baeck at the Zurich Hotel Savoy Baur en Ville in October 1946. Beginning as a tense stand-off between the two men, both giants in their respective fields, the encounter unfolds into a dialogue in which they exchange the grim reality of the events that caught them up in the years preceding and during the second world war. A mysterious feminine figure guides them through the process of confrontation and reconciliation.

Two ways to get there

Tram #8 to Englischviertelstrasse – walk one block down to down to the Foyer
Tram #11 to Kreuzplatz – walk to Klosbachstrasse, two blocks up to the Foyer

More information: office@isapzurich.com

Photo: C.G. Jung and Rabbi Leo Baeck at Eranos, 1947, Photographer Unknown
Source: <https://www.pinterest.de/emanuelecasale/c-g-jung-by-emanuele-casale/>