

Chats with Analysts • Spring 2018

In general one must guard against theoretical assumptions. . . . In my analysis they play no part. I am unsystematic by intention. C.G. Jung (MDR, 1961/89, p.131)

In these casual talks, ISAP analysts offer glimpses into their personal approaches to Jungian analysis.

ISAPZURICH

Stampfenbachstr. 115, 8006 Zürich
Tram 11 & 14, Tram Stop Beckenhof

Payment in Cash at the Door, CHF

- General Entry per Chat: 30.00
- Students & Seniors per Chat: 20.00
- The Complete Series, 3 Chats:
 - General Entry 75.00
 - Students & Seniors: 45.00
- Gratis for ISAP Students & Analysts

April 6
19:00-20:45

Stacy Wirth, MA

The Dance of Analysis

Imagining analysis as a dance, with whom do we partner in the duet? Exploring analytic encounters and goals shimmering through in subliminal experiences of body, time, and space

April 13
19:00-20:45

Vicki Reiff, MA

Jung's Psychology and Refugee Children

A discussion of my work with war traumatized children and adolescents

May 4
19:00-20:45

Christa Robinson, MA

The Magic of the Tortoise

Working with the I Ching in Jungian analysis, in public situations, as individuals, and in groups

More Information • nancy.krieger@isapzurich.com • www.isapzurich.com

ISAPZURICH • INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY ZURICH
AGAP POST-GRADUATE JUNGIAN TRAINING
CH-PROGRAM RECOGNIZED BY THE FEDERAL DEPT OF INTERIOR (EDI)