

Postlude

6 – 8 October, 2019

Excursion fee:

- General – CHF 90
- With Swiss Half Fare travel card – CHF 60

Entry fee per lecture, cash at the door:

- General Entry – CHF 30.00
- Students, Seniors, Disabled – CHF 20.00
- ISAP Students and Faculty – Gratis

ISAPZÜRICH, Stampfenbachstrasse 115, 8006 Zürich

Excursion
Sun. 6 Oct.

9:15–17:30

Paul Brutsche, Dr. phil.
Excursion to the Historic Swiss Town of St. Gallen

An opportunity to visit with Paul the interesting Swiss town of St. Gallen and its treasures, including the oldest library in Europe, now a designated UNESCO World Heritage Site, the adjacent Abbey Cathedral, St. Gallen's collection of Outsider Art, and the unique architecture of Old Town. General excursion fee of CHF 90 (CHF 60 for holder of Swiss Half Fare travel card) includes round trip group travel, audio-guide and admission to the library and museum, and a coffee. Lunch is self-pay. Students of ISAP receive three hours of credit. Sign up and payment in cash will take place at the Zurich Lecture Series opening reception on Friday, 4 October. For more information, contact penelope.yungblut@zurichlectureseries.com

Mon. 7 Oct.

10:00–11:45

Brigitte Egger, Dr.sc.nat.ETH
Dante's Divine Comedy: A Thorough and Exquisite Guide to Soul and Individuation Centered on Love

13:00–14:45

John Hill, MA
Estranged from Self and the World: What Can We Do?
Tues. 8 Oct.

10:00–11:45

Gunilla Midbøe, MSW
Visit from the Minotaur: A Myth and a Case Exploring the Boundaries and Limits of Ego-consciousness and Archetypal Powers

13:00–15:15

Civilization in Transition: Racism – A Jungian View

Panel discussion with Deborah Egger, MSW;
 Nancy Krieger, PhD; Bernard Sartorius, lic.theol;
 and Murray Stein, PhD, moderator